Note: Please make sure that your mailing information is updated on our records. If your account has returned mail, checks will not process. Trades must be settled (three days) for the funds to be released from the account. Requests received after 12pm EST will be processed the following business day and will be subjected to the next day's settlement balances, which could result in delays due to overnight changes in your available cash. Please call us at 1-800-597-8767 and confirm that we have received your fax.
